NORTHWEST AMATEUR

SIX-DAY CYCLE RACE

The Young Men's Christian association of the Northwest have scheduled a telegraphic athletic contest for next Friday night. The competing organizations will be Portland. Seattle, Tacoma, Everett, Bolse, Vancouver and Salt Lake City. The same events are to be run off at the same hour in each association and the results are to be telegraphed to all the competing associations. In this way it will be possible to determine the winner immediately after the last event has been run off.

distely after the last event has been run off.

In last year's telegraphic contest, the Salt Lake association wen more points than all three of the other associations combined, but the local records were not allowed because the men competing were not members of the A. A. U. This year all the boys have become members and their records will be allowed.

The first event will begin promptly at 8 p. m. and the public is invited to attend, free of charge. The events will be as follows, for which gold medals will be given to the winners of first places. Shotput, pole vanit, running high jump, 440-yard potato race, 120-yard potatorace.

A telegraphic meet, which will include running track events, is being arranged between the Portland, Salt Lake City, Omaha and Denver Y. M. C. A. 8.

MANTELL CHALLENGES WINNER ON NEW YEAR'S

Manager Fred L. Wood of the Lagoon Athletic club revelved a letter Tuesday from Frank Mantel asking him for a date with the winner of the Rube Smith-Charley Williams bout, which takes place on New Year's afternoon.

Mantel boxed Smith twenty rounds at Ogden last summer, Smith being given the decision by Referee Painter, which was unsatisfactory to a great number of those present. Since then Mantel has knocked out Honey Mellody, which has given him a great boost in the puglilatic world, and he is now anxious to wipe out his former defeat.

CHILDREN AID CHURCH

A novel feature of the Christmas entertainment given by the Sunday school of the First Congregational church Tuesday evening was the charging of admission to the entertainment of two potatoes or two apples. The fruit and vegetables collected in this fashion will be made a part of the dimers which are to be distributed by the Sunday school children to the poor people of the neighborhood. The dinners will include a turkey, cranberry sauce, ples, fruits and vegetables, candy and nuts, such as go to make up a good Christmas dinner. These will be placed in baskets, each basket designed to furnish a family of six. A number of toys will also be included for the children. About eighty-five families will be provided for in this way.

The entertainment consisted of a Christmas tree, brilliantly illuminated with electric lights, and a Santa Claus to distribute the peanuts among the little ones. There was also a Mother Goose and Santa Claus cantaia given by the children. There were songs and music and plenty of Christmas cheer, and the young people entered into their parts with spirit.

D. J. SULLIVAN IS LAID TO REST AT CALVARY

The funeral of D. J. Sullivan, late of Eureka, was held from St. Mary's cathedral Monday, and was largely attended by friends from Eureka and Ogden, and by many in Sait Lake. The services at the church were conducted by the Rev. Father Ryan and were very impressive. He spoke in eulogistic terms of the decased and the splendid courage with which he met death.

"He was a man, said Father Ryan, "full of physical power and strength, and as I saw him last Wednesday, I did not think death would strike. The next day I could see death manifest. He realized the end was near and said, Goodby, Father, I shall never see you again."

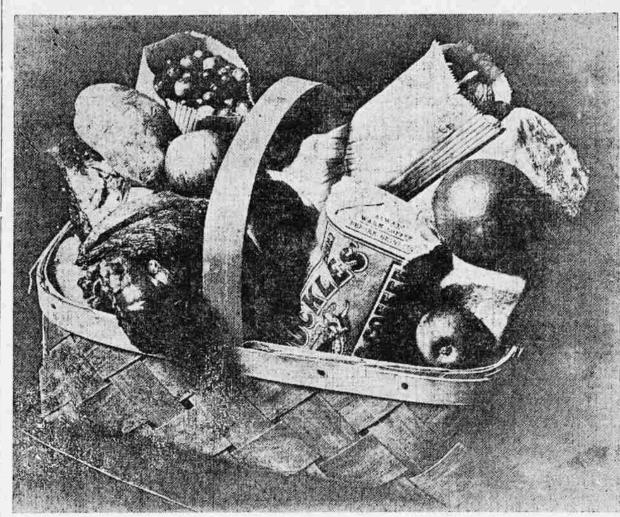

The reverend father's words to the aged and bereaved mother were beautiful and full of consolation and sympathy.

The choir rendered appropriate numbers and at the conclusion of Father Ryan's remarks sang "Nearer My God to Calvary cemetery by a large concourse of friends.

Judge Diehl received his Christmas present from the members of the city attorney's office, police department, newspaper fraternity and attorneys who are frequenters of his court. Thesday afternoon just as he had finished releasing "drunks," because it was too near Christmas to be hard on them. It was a beautiful slik umbredla and the presentation speech was made by Attorney William Newton, who assured the court it was the wish of the donators to have their gift actually protect the judge from the buffeting of the elements as he, during his many years on the bench, had protected the unfortunates who were drawn into his court from injustice and false witnesses. S. W. Darke, who died last Sunday of heart failure, will be buried from the First Baptist church Thursday afternoon. Mr. Darke was born in Birmingham, Eng., on the 22nd day of March, in the year 1812. Mr. Darke was a member of the bar of Sait Lake up to the time of his death. He was the past grand master of the Order of Odd Fellows and A. O. U. W. of this city. He leaves one daughter, five sons, a brother and a sister.

Z. C. M. I. EMPLOYEES HAVE PLEASANT FETE

Upon the report of Referee Howard A. King, Judge Armstrong granted a decree of divorce Tuesday to Lillian Chiff Pawlas from John Fawlas. The testimony taken before the referee showed that Pawlas deserted his wife in October, 1304. They were married in April, 1898, at Brigham City, and have three children. The custody of the children is awarded to Mrs. Pawlas. The tenth annual reunion of the employees of the shoc and overall departments of the Z. C. M. I. occurred Tuesday afternoon, and was fittingly celebrated with a banquet, held in the afternoon on the upper floors of the institution's shoe factory. There were about 150 present and they were served with a choice repast, including cysters, fruits. Christmas cakes and all the kindroid dishes of a Christmas feast. After the banquet there were speeches and toasts by various guests. T. G. Webber, secretary and manager of the Z. C. M. I., will George Romey and John R. Richert Mr. Richert has two large bothouses, each 20 by 100 feet, besides many hotbeds. During the early part of the season the hothouses were given over to the growing of lettuce, beets, radishes and other vegetables. They were used to grow cucumbers, muskmelons, watermelons and other plants and flowers. From twenty-five te fifty pounds of tomatoes are marketed from them every day. Out in his fields Mr. Richert has 10,000 cabhage plants growing, and from these he sells daily whatever the market needs. The strawberries grown on Mr. Richert's ranch did not do well this season, but the enterprising fruit grower is now endid not do well this season, but the enterprising fruit-grower is now engaged in clearing ten acres of dry, sandy soil, on which he hopes to raise both strawberries and potatoes. A movement is on foot to make an exhibit of the various kinds of fruit and regetables raised at Fairbanks, an exhibit which may be carried about the country, to be seen by many people who thus may be convinced that Alaska is something more than a land of ice and snow.

THE CAMPING PLACE.

Living in a wee hall room
Up on High;
Living in the settled gloom
Of a little hall bedroom,
Hoping things will take a boom
By and by!

Living in a hall bedroom.

Hapless folk:
Writing things to pay the rent.
Painting things as pictures meant—
Life as in a hall room spent
Is no joke.

Living in a wee hall room

Near the sky.

Where the yellow gas-jets burn
And the folding-bed looms strong,
Hoping things will take a turn
By and by!
